What's With The Pig?

Manannán mac Lir is a sea deity in Irish mythology. He is the son of Lir (an Irish sea god) and is often seen as a psychopomp (a conductor of souls to the afterworld) with strong affiliations to the Otherworld, the weather, and the mists between the worlds.

According to legend, Manannán had a number of pigs that could be slaughtered and cooked one night, only to reappear in their pen the next day, restored to life and full health. He gifted these pigs to the Tuatha De Danann (the 5th people to settle Ireland) to help them after being displaced as the rulers of Ireland.

In modern folklore it is believed that if a pig is seen with a deformity (such as a bent leg or missing tail) then the pig must be a descendent of Manannán's pigs, and therefore good luck. Look again at the pig on our shield and you will see his ear is missing a little piece. We placed him on our shield to symbolize good luck and strength.

WINES

Publick Red Blend

The aroma is beautifully balanced, with notes of blackberry, peppercorns, and a touch of cumin and lilac. Finishes with light, elegant, and lingering tannins. Pairs well with bacon. $5

How to Taste – the William Oliver's Way

Ask any expert and they will all agree that whisk(e)y tasting doesn't have to be complicated. However, none of them seem to be in agreement about exactly how to taste whisk(e)y. Below is our method for enjoying whisk(e)y "properly". However, the best advice we ever received came during a Glenfiddich distillery tour: "Drink it however you prefer, so long as you drink it." We don't know everything; however, we have tasted enough whisk(e)y that we feel comfortable giving the following advice:

METHOD: Use a glass that is comfortable in your hand. Make sure the glass is clean. Open up the whisk(e)y by cradling the glass in your hands, causing it to heat slightly. Put one hand around the bottom of the glass and one over the top (to keep the volatiles in). This will release the aromatics. Give it a smell. Move the glass from one side of the nose to the other. Take small, normal, sniffs. If all you can smell is the alcohol, pull it away from your face and try again in a couple seconds. Give it a taste. Hold it in your mouth a little bit. Add some water and give it another taste. Keep adding water until you are happy that you found all the nuances in the whisk(e)y. Once it starts to taste like water you have added too much. Order another one. This time add the amount of water you think is right and try to really pull out all the flavors. Whisk(e)y is complex, it will take more than one sitting to figure it all out.

Note: Not all whisk(e)y will need water added. Typically the better the whisk(e)y the less water it will need.

COLORADO WHISKEY

291 American Whiskey

(Colorado Springs) Mellowed with aspen charcoal. Hints of green corn and marzipan. 86 proof. $8

291 Colorado Bourbon

(Colorado Springs) A rye and vague hoppy note to the nose. Thicker and meatier on the palate than most, with flavors of honeycomb and molasses. Aspen stave finish leaves a lot of spice. 100 proof. $10

291 Colorado Rye BARREL PROOF

(Colorado Springs) ~Limited~ Small batch, barrel proof whiskey with a mash bill of 61% rye malt and 39% corn distilled in a copper pot still. Aged in deeply charred American white oak barrels, then finished with Aspen Staves. 126 proof. $16

A.D. Laws Four Grain Straight Bourbon

(Denver) Corn, barley, wheat, and rye are painstakingly combined and slowly distilled to coax out the delicate flavors in this highly complex whiskey. 95 proof. $11

A.D. Laws Secale Straight Rye

(Denver) Distinctive and unapologetic. Made with 95% rye and 5% barley grown right here in Colorado. Rich flavors and layered complexity define its characteristics. 100 proof. $9

Bear Creek Straight Bourbon

(Denver) Matured in 53 gallon American white oak for a minimum of 2 years, Colorado's warm days and cool nights help shape the identity of this bourbon. Dark mahogany in color with spice and oak on the nose, followed up with a creamy mouthfeel and flavors of cereal grains, spices, clove, and fruit all ending in a smooth finish. 90 proof. $11

Big Fat Pastor's Holy Smokes Malt Whiskey

(Loveland) Blending Colorado grown barley with peat smoked barley imported straight from Scotland. This combination offers a sweet and smokey mix that is approachable for the whiskey newbie as well as the aficionado. 80 proof. $7

Branch & Barrel Whiskey

(Centennial) A mash bill of corn and barley aged in white oak barrels. Notes of caramel, vanilla, and oak. 84 proof. $10

Breckenridge Bourbon

(Breckenridge) Two to three year old high-rye bourbons, distilled in Breckenridge are blended with other straight bourbon whiskeys selected for flavor. 86 proof. $9

Breckenridge Whiskey Port Finished

(Breckenridge) Their award winning bourbon is further aged in ex-port barrels imparting an explosive mouthful of dark fruit flavors. 90 proof. $9

Colorado Gold Rye

(Cedaredge) A grain bill of 95% rye and 5% malted barley. A classic Pennsylvania style rye recipe that celebrates the spicy, dry grain. 90 proof. $6

Colorado Gold Straight Bourbon

(Cedaredge) Balanced with a touch of citrus, with dusty, coal fire notes on the finish. 80 proof. $8

CopperMuse Straight Malt

(Fort Collins) ~Limited~ Sweet chocolate and malted barley persist on the palate. Finish is clean and smooth. 86 proof. $8

Deerhammer American Single Malt

(Buena Vista) 100% malted barley is open fermented with two unique yeast strains before double distillation through a direct-fire copper pot still. Notes of sweet coffee, cacao, and spices. 92 proof. $9

Downslope Double Diamond

(Centennial) Reminiscent of a good Irish whiskey. Nicely complex malt and barley notes with hints of caramelized citrus and spice. 80 proof. $6

Elkins Colorado Whisky

(Estes Park) They utilize an experimental oaking and maturation process using oak cubes and staves, heat, oxygen infusion, and chill filtration. 100 proof. $5

Feisty Spirits Better Days Bourbon

(Fort Collins) Up front light spicy aroma. Spice and caramel throughout the flavor with a strong oak at the tail end. 88 proof. $7

Feisty Spirits Feisty Pig

(Fort Collins) ~Limited~ Made exclusively for William Oliver's. 60% millet, 30% blue corn, 10% rye. Earthy and floral with hints of almonds. 88 proof. $4

Fireside Bourbon

(Denver) Smooth, but robust, every taste stays true to barrels of white oak and the promise of perfection in this Colorado bourbon. 80 proof. $4

Fireside Peach

(Denver) All-natural peach flavor compliments the smooth, smoky profile of their bourbon. Subtle Palisade peach notes on the nose and back of the pallet. 80 proof. $4

Hogback High-Rye

(Wheat Ridge) 95% rye. Hints of vanilla and honey shine through the dominant rye bread, green tea, and floral character. A subtle but long licorice finish rounds off this distinctive whiskey. 90 proof. $8

Leopold Bros American Small Batch

(Denver) Begins with a traditional sour mash of corn and rye. Subtle flavors such as vanilla, pear, and raspberry. The barrel adds subtle notes of oak and vanilla and does not overpower the finished whiskey. 86 proof. $6

Leopold Bros New York Apple

(Denver) Made with a wide range of upstate New York apples. While the apples oxidize in the barrels, flavors of dried fruits, raisins, and apricots develop. 80 proof. $5

Leopold Bros Maryland Style Rye

(Denver) Made with a handful of chocolate malt and aged for 4 years. Generally spicy, dry, and heavily oaked yet balanced by a fruity, floral, and less aggressive finish. 86 proof. $8

Longtucky Spirits The Last Waltz Bourbon

(Longmont) ~Limited~ A perfect blend of barrels originally distilled by Black Canyon Distillery and then produced and bottled by Longtucky Spirits. Unique oak flavors with all the traditional corn and rye malt profiles and sweet American flavor, but with its own unique Colorado barrel finish to it. 90 proof. $7

NoCo Distillery Bourbon II

(Fort Collins) A delicate combination of corn, rye and barley come together to make this small batch bourbon. An intense nose with aromas of dried fruits, chocolate covered orange rind, vanilla, leather and tobacco spice. The palate is elegant, rounded and smooth, with notes of citrus, nutmeg, oak, caramel, and vanilla. The finish is long, silky smooth, and complex. 84 proof. $9

Old Elk Bourbon

(Fort Collins) Using four times more malted barley than traditional recipes, this bourbon generates sweet, light components. The malted barley, combined with spicy clove from the rye, and the traditional rich bourbon character from the corn, creates the overall robust taste profile. 88 proof. $7

Old Standard Organic Bourbon

(Fort Collins) Corn, malted barley, and malted rye matured in new American oak barrels. Notes of smoke, oak, caramel corn, vanilla, and toffee. 100 proof. $9

Bird Dog Peppermint Moonshine

Distilled four times for superior smoothness, infused with natural peppermint flavors. 80 proof. $4

Boondock's American

Despite using used oak, the woody notes are very upfront with this whiskey. Hints of roasted marshmallow with a finish that is short and sweet. 95 proof. $7

Colkegan American Single Malt

Just like its Scotch cousins, this whiskey is made entirely from malted barley. They use mesquite wood to yield a spirit with amazing complexity. 92 proof. $9

Defiant American Single Malt

Notes of vanilla, caramel, honeyed oak, and citrus. Finish is bold and warming with a hint of clove and ginger. 82 proof. $7

Fireball

Tastes like Heaven, Burns like Hell. Made with Canadian whisky and natural cinnamon flavors. 66 proof. $4

George Dickel Old No. 8 Tennessee

A signature balance of Tennessee whisky flavors, handcrafted for those who want a classic, smooth-sipping experience. 80 proof. $4

J. Rieger's Kansas City Whiskey

A blend of corn, malt, and straight rye whiskies aged at least 7 years, as well as a small amount of 15 year old Oloroso Sherry from Jerez, Spain. Balanced, smooth, and slightly sweet. 92 proof. $7

Jack Daniel's Old No. 7

Tennessee sour mash mellowed drop by drop through 10-feet of sugar maple charcoal, then matured in handcrafted barrels. The way Jack Daniel himself did it over a century ago to get that balance of sweet and oaky flavor known the world over. 80 proof. $4

Little Book: #1 The Easy (2017)

~Limited~ The first release of Little Book™ features uncut, unfiltered Kentucky Straight Bourbon blended with corn, rye, and malt whiskies – the three ingredients commonly found in a bourbon mash bill—to create an easy-drinking whiskey that's blended to be one of a kind. 128.2 proof. $15

Little Book: #2 Noe Simple Task (2018)

~Limited~ The second release blends together an 8 year Kentucky straight rye, a 40 year Canadian whisky, and a 13 year Canadian rye. This painstakingly conceived combination offers a truly balanced and refined whiskey with a nice, lingering finish that's full of flavor. 118.8 proof. $20

Seagram's 7 Crown Blended Whiskey

A light and mild whiskey that is easy to mix. A nose offering smoky, herbal, and honey/maple elements. A smooth-bodied, apricot flavored, buttery delight. 80 proof. $4

Sinfire

Cinnamon-infusion produced in Oregon with Canadian whisky. Mild cinnamon with hints of maple. 70 proof. $4

Slow Hand 6 Wood Organic

A new kind of whiskey that highlights the flavors of exotic woods. A 100% malt mash, it ages in French oak vats with cubes of hickory, mulberry, red oak, hard maple, and grape woods. 84 proof. $8

BOURBON

Prices listed are for 1oz pours. 2oz and ½ oz pours also available.

1792 Small Batch

The first impression is sweetness on the tip of the tongue, starting with caramel and melting into vanilla as it makes its way through the mouth. The rye jumps out bringing heavy spice, some spearmint, mild orange peel and lemon zest, followed up by a healthy dose of oak. 93.7 proof. $6

Angel's Envy Port Finish

Kentucky straight bourbon whiskey finished in a port barrel. Well rounded palate, with ripe berries and fruits. Silky finish, and dangerously drinkable. 86 proof. $10

Basil Hayden's

A Kentucky straight bourbon with an emphasis on rye. Enriched by a hint of peppermint, it impresses with notes of pepper balanced by slight citrus overtones and a spicy, warming finish. 80 proof. $9

Belle Meade Sour Mash Straight Small Batch

Known for its spicy high rye content and smooth character, derived from only 4 select barrels per batch. Each barrel is aged 6-8 years and are hand selected to complement each other to create this signature flavor profile. Notes of caramel, vanilla, apricots, and bold rye spice. 90.4 proof. $7

Belle Meade Cognac Cask

They took their award-winning small batch bourbon and aged it in XO Cognac barrels. A true treat for the tastebuds with hints of vanilla, caramel, orange, and baking spices. 90.4 proof. $10

Blade & Bow

This solera-aged Kentucky straight bourbon contains the last remaining stock of whiskey distilled at the original Stitzel-Weller Distillery. It has a subtle aroma of fresh fruit and a taste that includes hints of dried apricot, ripe pear, and sweet roasted grain. The finish has notes of charred oak and warm winter spices. 91 proof. $8

Blanton's Single Barrel

~Limited~ Made from barrels aged in the middle of Warehouse H, the original casks reserved for ambassadors, dignitaries, family, and friends. Today these same "center-cut" barrels are hand-selected for this great whiskey. Sweet start, with a creamy roundness and a touch of persimmon. 93 proof. $11

Booker's True Barrel Proof

Named after Jim Beam's grandson, Booker Noe (former master distiller). This small batch bourbon is concentrated and intense. Pepper and rye are anchored with rich caramel. 127.4 proof. $11

Bowman Brothers Small Batch

~Limited~ This small batch bourbon has been distilled three times using the finest corn, rye and malted barley. A hand picked selection of barrels are married together to create a distinct and consistent flavor profile. An aroma of caramelized apples and nuts meet the nose. Its complex flavor has hints of vanilla and oak, while the finish is smooth and mellow. 90 proof. $7

Buffalo Trace

Kentucky straight bourbon. The taste is rich and complex, with hints of vanilla, toffee, and candied fruit. The smooth finish lingers on the palate. 90 proof. $4

Bulleit

This 'frontier whiskey' is also a Kentucky straight bourbon made from a blend of rye, corn, and barley. A gentle spiciness with smooth tones of maple, oak, and nutmeg. Finish is satiny with a light toffee flavor. 90 proof. $6

E. H. Taylor, Jr. Barrel Proof

~Limited~ Bottled right from the hand selected barrels; uncut and unfiltered at more than 125 proof. It's a reflection of the way whiskey was produced in the days before Prohibition. The taste is bold and full of spice. The finish satisfyingly long with powerful rye notes and lingering hints of fruit. Ask which proof is available. $13

E. H. Taylor, Jr. Single Barrel

This Kentucky bourbon is Bottled-in-Bond. One sip brings flavors of sweetness balanced with tobacco and dark spices. 100 proof. $12

Eagle Rare 10 year Single Barrel

Kentucky straight bourbon. Complex aroma, as well as a smooth and lingering taste. Aromas of toffee, hints of orange peel, herbs, honey, leather, and oak. Bold, dry, oaky flavors with notes of candied almonds and very rich cocoa. 90 proof. $6

Elijah Craig Small Batch

Before the term Small Batch existed, Elijah Craig was hand-selecting barrels to create their bourbon. Smooth and warm; pleasantly woody with accents of spice, smoke, and nutmeg. 94 proof. $6

Elmer T. Lee Single Barrel

~ Limited~ Kentucky straight bourbon hand selected and bottled to the Master Distiller's taste and standards. Perfectly balanced and rich with a nose of clove, vanilla, and old leather. Flavors of fruit, honey, and vanilla with a slight spiciness. 90 proof. $7

Four Roses Single Barrel

Kentucky straight bourbon. Complex, full bodied, and surprisingly smooth with a delicate finish that's unbelievably mellow. Contains hints of ripe plum, cherry, mild spices, plus sweet aromas of caramel, cocoa, vanilla, and maple syrup. 100 proof. $8

George T. Stagg

~Limited~ Kentucky straight bourbon that comes straight out of the barrel, uncut and unfiltered. The taste is powerful, flavorful, and intense. Proof dependant on release. $46

Jefferson's Ocean: Aged At Sea

The caramelizing of the sugars in the barrel combined with the constant motion of the ship resulted in a dark bourbon with a briny, savory taste aged beyond its years. Stopping on 5 continents and crossing the equator 4 times. 82.3 proof. $13

Jim Beam Original

The flagship Kentucky bourbon of Jim Beam. Aromas of oaky vanilla with a spicy backdrop. Medium-bodied flavor with mellow notes of caramel and vanilla. 80 proof. $4

Kentucky Gentleman

Blended Kentucky bourbon. Fruity and nutty, with hints of dried cherries. 80 proof. $4

Knob Creek 9 year Small Batch

Kentucky straight bourbon. Notes of toasted oak and a touch of rye with caramel sweetness. The finish is long with a touch of dryness. 100 proof. $6

Knob Creek Single Barrel Reserve

Kentucky straight bourbon that is hand selected, barrel-by-barrel, to provide a robust, mature flavor. Hints of nuts and the slightest smoke. Finish is long and full. 120 proof. $9

Knob Creek 25th Anniversary

~Limited~ Kentucky straight bourbon unfiltered and, for the first time, bottled at cask strength. Aged 12-13 years with a deep full vanilla, surprisingly sweet, and nutty flavor. 125 proof. $18

Larceny Very Special Small Batch

A Kentucky straight bourbon made with wheat as the secondary grain instead of the traditional rye making for a smoother tasting bourbon. 92 proof. $5

Maker's Mark

Kentucky straight bourbon. Made with corn, red winter wheat, barley, and rye. Notes of vanilla, oak, and caramel. 90 proof. $6

Maker's 46

Kentucky straight bourbon. The goal was to create a "woodier nose" and a much longer finish. The French oak staves used in the aging are seasoned and aged for 18 months before allowing them to finish Maker's Mark for an additional nine weeks in a limestone cellar. 94 proof. $7

Maker's Mark Tiffany's No. 3

~Limited~ Our own Private Select version of Maker's Mark. Four of our staff traveled to Kentucky to take part in this exclusive program allowing us to finish a cask of Maker's Mark in our own style. If Maker's 46 is the bigger bolder version of the original, then this is its "omphier" cousin. 109.8 proof. $12

Old Crow

This Kentucky Straight Bourbon is the unofficial drink for Electronic and Space Warfare members (dubbed the Association of Old Crows). It was served in the presidential homes of Andrew Jackson, William Henry Harrison, and Ulysses S. Grant. Young, sweet, and oddly minty. 80 proof. $4

Old Forester Classic

The world's first bottled bourbon. Sharp at first, but softens quickly with hints of oak, sweet corn and rye grain character. Spicy with soft vanilla and light orange notes. 86 proof. $4

Old Forester Signature

Handpicked from select barrels, this is a rich and complex bourbon. Spicy and robust, bottled at a proof to maintain its distinctive character and full flavor profile. 100 proof. $5

Rebel Yell

Kentucky straight bourbon. Heavy sweet corn on the nose that lead to some sweeter, golden dried fruits on the palate. The finish has flavors of ripe orchard fruits, sweet corn, and honey. 80 proof. $4

Stagg Jr. Barrel Proof

Kentucky straight bourbon. Spicy nose, with dark berry and plum fruitiness on the palate. The finish is long and oaky. Proof dependant on release. $9

Straight Edge

A blend of 5, 7, and 8 year old bourbons from Kentucky and Tennessee. Aromas of brown sugar, maple, caramelized oak, exotic spices, orange peel, and campfire. The palate is velvety smooth, rich, and packed with flavors of brown spice, honey, and intense caramel. 84 proof. $8

TX Straight Bourbon

This wheated bourbon is made using a unique wild strain of yeast that they captured and carefully cultivated for this product alone. This 'Brazos' strain produces flavors of dried fruit, sweet spice, and floral notes that are unique from other yeasts. 90 proof. $9

W.L. Weller Special Reserve

Kentucky straight bourbon. A wheated bourbon with a sweet nose and a presence of caramel. Taste has notes of honey, butterscotch, and soft woodiness. It is smooth, delicate, and calm with a smooth sweet honeysuckle flair finish. 90 proof. $4

Willett Pot Still Reserve

Scotch Regions

Islands

PEATY & OCEANIC

Sitting amongst the inner Hebridean Scottish Isles, are the malt whisky producing islands of Islay and Skye. Rugged, windswept, and barren, the island landscapes generally produce single malt whiskies with strong peaty and maritime aromas.

Highlands

SMOOTH & FLORAL

Known as one of the most scenic regions in Scotland, this land of rugged peaks and heather covered moor-land is geographically the largest of the whisky-producing regions. It covers two major areas and a variety of warm, rounded single malt whiskies. The West Highlands with its maritime influence and the Central Highlands include heather and honey flavors.

Speyside

DELICATE & FRUITY

The lush, fertile valley of the River Spey - is undoubtedly the heart of single malt whisky distilling in Scotland. It's classic flavors of honey, vanilla, and fresh fruits combine to create whiskies that are both sophisticated and elegant. With age, and especially when matured in sherry casks, they evolve to deliver dried fruit and sweet spice flavors.

Lowlands

LIGHT & FRESH

The lowlands are characterized by rolling fields which are ideally suited to growing grain. The softer landscape is mirrored in the region's single malts which tend to be lighter in both color and body. With little or no peat used in the drying of the malt, the whiskies distilled here are generally fresh and light, fragrant, and floral with cereal flavorings.

Scotch

Prices listed are for 1oz pours. 2oz and ½ oz pours also available.

Glenfiddich 21 year Gran Reserva Single Malt

(Speyside) Experience an intense vanilla sweet aroma, floral with hints of banana, followed by a soft, lively taste with lime, ginger, and spice resulting in a complex and exceptionally long ending. The rum finish releases layers of intensity and truly sets this one apart. 80 proof. $24

Glenfiddich 26 year Excellence Single Malt

(Speyside) A vibrant yet soft and delicate expression, with a deep and complex balance of sweetness and dry oak tannin. Bound to excite the palate and awaken the nose. Hints of deep oak, spring blossom, brown sugar, and exotic spices. 86 proof. $60

Glenfiddich 30 year Single Malt

(Speyside) An exceptional expression that has spent at least 30 years in Spanish Oloroso and American bourbon oak. Every cask is nosed, selected and married by the Glenfiddich Malt Master. For the finest balance of hearty oak, sherry, fig, and dark chocolate. Deep, layered flavours and a masterful finish. 86 proof. $82

Glenfiddich 40 year Single Malt

(Speyside) The prize of our collection here at William Oliver's. An exemplary single malt that is highly sought after as less than 1000 bottles are produced each year. The Malt Master handpicks some of the oldest casks in the world, marrying 40 year old vatting to craft a peerless whisky. Infinite depth and layer upon layer of aroma and flavour create an experience unrivalled by other rare whiskies of this age. Intense dried fruit, roasted coffee, stewed apple, a hint of dry oak, bitter chocolate and faint peat. ABV varies by release year. $248

Glenfiddich Experimental #1 IPA Cask Finish

(Speyside) This first in a series proves that traditional whisky cask can still be seasoned in a pioneering way. Collaborating with a local Speyside craft brewer they created a bold and zesty IPA beer to imbue the casks with extra hoppy notes. The first ever single malt Scotch to be finished in IPA casks. 86 proof. $13

Glenfiddich Experimental #2 Project XX

(Speyside) Deep gold in color it has the warm, summer fruity character of a classic Glenfiddich but then multiple personalities are revealed as the flavor of sweet cinnamon spice, almonds, and rich port tannins kick in with a hint of licorice. 94 proof. $15

Glenfiddich Experimental #3 Winter Storm

(Speyside) ~Limited~ For the third series, they experimented with filling several French oak Ice Wine casks with the rarer 21 year malts for up to six months. The taste is a perfect combination of both pioneering liquids, the heightened candied sweets and oakiness of Glenfiddich are complemented by mouth-watering tropical fruit notes and a luscious sweetness from the unique finish. 86 proof. $46

Glenfiddich Experimental #4 Fire & Cane

(Speyside) A bold fusion of smoky and sweet notes. Marrying peated whisky matured in bourbon barrels, and then finishing in Latin rum casks created an exquisite whisky with campfire smokiness and toffee sweetness. 86 proof. $9

Glenfiddich 'The Original' 1963 Retro Single Malt

(Speyside) ~Limited~ This historic expression is a recreation of the original 1963 Glenfiddich Straight Malt that started the single malt category from a recipe uncovered from the Glenfiddich family archives. The aroma is floral with the hallmark Glenfiddich pear, followed by lively fruit notes, biscuity with a soft vanilla oakiness and deliciously dry finish. 80 proof. $19

Glenkinchie 12 year Single Malt

(Lowland) The nose is light yet fragrant. Notes of fresh cereal, some barley sweetness, and a nutty note. The palate is very fruity with notes of Madeira and sweet stewed fruits. The finish is of medium length with notes of cereal and a fresh greenness. 86 proof. $12

Glenlivet 12 year Single Malt

(Speyside) Sweet creamy vanilla, honey, pineapple, pressed apples, and a little cinnamon on the nose. Apple cores, fresh and fruity trifle, and creamy citrus swim on the palate. Finish is long and delicious with hints of almonds and apples. 86 proof. $7

Glenlivet Archive 21 year Single Malt

(Speyside) Sandalwood and pine with a resinous note on the nose. The palate is rich and full with notes of oily walnuts and winter fruit cake with spice and sugar. There is a golden syrup note. The finish is long and sweet with a soft, chewy oak. 86 proof. $31

Glenmorangie 10 year Single Malt

(Highland) Very fruity and thick nose, followed by fresh and balanced vanilla on the palate. The finish is quite long, gentle, malty, and very fruity. 80 proof. $9

Glenmorangie 12 year Quinta Ruban Single Malt

(Highland) Finished in specially selected port pipes from Portugal. The nose is full of winter berries with a touch of port. The palate is sweet and thick with notes of barley, sugar, cereal, and lots of juicy fruit and berries. A long, sweet fruity finish. 92 proof. $12

Glenmorangie 18 year Single Malt

(Highland) Creamy honey, grapefruit, and exotic spice on the nose. The palate is citrusy and creamy with an oak finish with hints of citrus. 86 proof. $21

Highland Park 12 year Single Malt

(Island) This 12 year old is at the very heart of their core range and demonstrates rich, well-balanced malt tones, with the subtle floral smoke which makes Highland Park so distinctive. 86 proof. $9

Highland Park 18 year Single Malt

(Island) Opens with notes of honey and fruit on the nose. The palate is smooth and light with a bright velvet texture and subtle smokiness. It finishes sweet and smooth while it fades rather fast. 86 proof. $19

Highland Park 25 year Single Malt

(Island) Matured entirely in sherry casks. As a result, it has a red and golden hue, along with the aroma of mature oak, fudge, and chocolate. The whisky has initial notes of honey and nutty toffee, which lead to a rich and supple finish. 91.4 proof. $76

Isle of Skye 8 year

(Blended) Smoky notes of barley and crème anglaise on the nose. A fruity and sweet palate with a nutty and spicy finish. 80 proof. $5

Johnnie Walker 12 year Black Label

(Blended) Created using only whiskies aged for a minimum of 12 years from the four corners of Scotland with an unmistakably smooth, deep character. A multi-dimensional taste that makes it really versatile: the flavors of rich fruits, vanilla and smoke shine through whether served on the rocks or mixed with soda in a highball. 80 proof. $8

Johnnie Walker Double Black Label

(Blended) Combining the rich, malty flavor of the classic Black Label with slightly peatier whisky and casks that were more heavily charred. The result is a toasty, smoky whisky with Johnnie Walker's usual rich, malty core. 80 proof. $9

Johnnie Walker 18 year Platinum Label

(Blended) Sweet and richly deep aromas with hints of maraschino cherries, toffee, vanilla, rhubarb crumble, and a whiff of smoke. The richness continues to the palate, with creamy malt, oats, and cereal. Finishes with dark chocolate with caramelized peel. 80 proof. $18

Johnnie Walker Blue Label

(Blended) The nose is fragrant with good body and hints of cedar and a touch of spice and citrus. Toffee and hints of smoke on the palate leading to a fruity, spicy finish. 80 proof. $33

Lagavulin 8 year Single Malt

(Islay) Originally a limited release but was so well received they have made it a permanent expression. Smokey peat appears first on the palate, followed by coriander seed, barley sugar, cumin powder, smoked kippers, and marzipan. 96 proof. $9

Lagavulin 16 year Single Malt

(Islay) One of the smokiest noses from Islay. The palate is very thick and rich with malt, sherry, peat, and oak. It finishes long and spicy with hints of figs, dates, peat smoke, and vanilla. 86 proof. $15

Laphroaig Quarter Cask Single Malt

(Islay) A buttery nose with toffee, nuts, hickory, and zest. The palate has a big rush of sweetness and a touch of cola syrup. A fruity finish with custard and cigar smoke. 96 proof. $11

Laphroaig Cairdeas Single Malt

(Islay) At the request of the Friends of Laphroaig, this cask strength version of their famed Quarter Cask was released. Sweet vanilla dryness develops into a creamy, oily mouthfeel with bitter licorice root and full of smoke. 114.4 proof. $15

Laphroaig Lore Single Malt

(Islay) Rich and smoky seaside minerals with a hint of ash and bitter chocolate drops. Vanilla follows with oily unroasted chestnuts and a hint of fudge with a malty sweetness. A drop of water adds a creamy clotted cream note with unripe citrus. 96 proof. $17

Lost Distillery Benachie

(Blended) Spicy and robust with almost no floral notes. Flavors of fruit cake, tangerines, and vanilla come through in a nice balance with the sherry oak notes. 86 proof. $7

Lost Distillery Lossit

(Blended) The most robust of the Lost Distillery line with peat forward notes along with flavors of almonds, pears, and peppers. 86 proof. $7
